

Antichrist – Part Two

One possible interpretation of the prophecies... this could be wrong! ☺

In the prophecy of the 70 "sevens" (70 sets of 7 years) in Daniel chapter 9, there is a g between the 69th and 70th "seven". This is the "A of the C". The 69th seven brought us to the Messiah being crucified. The 70th seven represents the "end times".

The antichrist will be (might be) a p in R.

The Roman Empire was dominant until 475 AD – strong like the statue's legs of unmixed iron... but then it was broken up into the countries of Europe, etc. Some of the Roman strength and culture, though, would l on in those European countries. This is the mixture of iron and clay that we see in the feet of the Daniel 2 prophecy. It says "the fourth kingdom will be a d kingdom; yet it will have some of the strength of iron in it, even as you saw iron mixed with clay." The iron-and-clay-mixed-feet represent that o R E, still living on, to some extent, in the inner workings of the countries that used to make up it's empire. This is occurring during the g between the 69th and 70th seven.

The little horn, political r of Italy then becomes ruler of three of the 10 nations (remember the 3 horns that the l h uprooted) – with the other 7 nations remaining in a with him.

In Revelation the antichrist IS the b – a b with 10 h – AND – 7 h.

The 7 heads represent seven hills = the city of R.

The 7 heads ALSO represent 7 historical w p....
Rome being one of them.

The antichrist eventually will weasel his way into being named the l of the entire 10 E nation confederacy. (10 nations that all were once a part of the Roman Empire.) Those 10 nations (kings) will give their p over to him.

The 10 horns of the beast in Revelation, the 10 horns coming out of the Roman beast's head in the Daniel 7 vision, and the 10 toes at the end of the feet of iron and clay (the divided Roman empire) — are all the same 10 n that will cede p to the antichrist. The antichrist will have brought the Roman Empire back to life!

The antichrist will then make a t with Israel that involves a great pronouncement on his part: he will intervene in the battle between the Jews and the Palestinians within Israel, and will make it possible for the Jews to rebuild their t.

That treaty with Israel kicks off the 70th s from the prophecy in Daniel 9.

3 ½ years after making the treaty, the antichrist will bring his army against Israel and will "set himself up in God's t, proclaiming himself to b G." (2 Thessalonians 2:4) This is the prophesied about "A that Causes Desolation."

He will then unleash a time of t s upon Christians and Jews.

But this will only be for m (the final 3 ½ years of the 70th seven).

At the end of the 70th set of 7 years: Jesus r and defeats the antichrist and all evil. There will be a final judgment and Jesus will rule a kingdom that will never pass away!!!
